Applicant Information (Please Read):

The Neighborhood Traffic Mitigation Program is designed to involve residents in coming up with a solution to their own neighborhood's traffic problems. Involvement may include the door–to-door collection of signatures in order to demonstrate neighborhood level of support for traffic calming. Involvement may also include participating in several evening meetings for the purpose of designing a traffic calming proposal for the neighborhood. It must also be noted that the following items will NOT be considered and/or offered through the Neighborhood Traffic Mitigation Program without exception:

- STOP Signs
- "Slow Children Playing" signs
- Crosswalks
- Lighted Crosswalks
- School Crossing Guards
- Reduced Speed Limit School Zones
- Lowered Speed Limits
- Photo Radar
- Rumble Strips
- Drainage Cross Pans (Dips)
- Traffic Signals

- Gates (all roads)
- Road Closures
- Speed "Bumps"
- Flashing Yellow Lights
- Pedestrian Actuated Signals
