

City of Longmont Mediation Services

Mediation is an informal, voluntary process for parties who have a conflict that they have been unable to resolve. A successful mediation results in a binding and enforceable final agreement between parties.

If you're experiencing conflict in any of the following areas, mediation may be the right choice for you:

- ✓ Court Order
(eviction cases and collections)
- ✓ Housing Retention
(landlord/tenant, roommate, mobile home parks, fair housing)
- ✓ Neighborhood
(noise, pets, neighbor/neighbor)
- ✓ Organization
(private non-profit agencies, community groups)
- ✓ Parent/Youth
(youth, peer relations, school, community)
- ✓ Racial/Cross-Cultural Issues

90% of mediated cases are resolved

Free service for Longmont residents

Information is kept confidential

Ready for mediation? Call (303) 651-8444 or email mediation.services@longmontcolorado.gov for more information