Firing Range and Training Center

The Longmont Public Safety and Boulder County Sheriff's Office Range is a training and shooting facility. Law enforcement uses it during the week, and members of the public can use it on certain weekend hours with a membership. The range has ten 25-yard shooting stations, each with a target system you control.

City of Longmont employees, Boulder County Sheriff's Office employees, and retired law enforcement or military members get 20% off all membership plans (except A La Carte).

To become a member, you must complete a $100 non-refundable background check and a range orientation class. After that, you can choose one of six shooting plans. Members can also reserve a shooting lane and time. To start your application, visit LongmontColorado.gov/firingrange.
